

Notes and Comments

Although the journal is healthy, this seems like the appropriate time to stop publication. Thus, this issue is the last one.

Analytic Teaching Press will continue to operate. The next volume in the series will be on the nature of classroom conversation. Contributions to that volume are being solicited and should be sent to Ronald Reed at Texas Wesleyan University.

Mexico Conference

The Fourth Annual Conference of the International Council of Philosophical Inquiry with Children (ICPIC) will be held in Mexico, April 10th to 12th, 1991, at a hotel outside Mexico City (Oaxtepec). The Conference will focus on the theme "Philosophy for Children Goes to the University." For further information contact:
